REPORT ON ANTI-RAGGING AWARENESS TALK

Date: 31 July 2026

Time: 10:30 AM

Venue: Seminar Hall

Organised by: Anti-Ragging Cell

In association with: IQAC

Coordinator: Shareena P S

Vedavyasa College of Arts and Science organised an Anti-Ragging Awareness Talk on 31 July 2026 at 10:30 AM in the Seminar Hall, in association with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC). The programme was organised by the Anti-Ragging Cell to create awareness among students about the harmful effects of ragging and the importance of maintaining a safe and respectful campus environment.

The programme began with a welcome speech by Shareena P S, Coordinator of the Anti-Ragging Cell. She welcomed the Chief Guest, teachers, and students and highlighted the importance of creating a ragging-free campus.

The programme featured Mr Suresh Kumar K., Sub Inspector of Vazhakkad Police Station, as the Chief Guest and resource person. He addressed the students on the harmful effects of ragging, its legal consequences, and the importance of following anti-ragging rules and regulations. He emphasised that ragging can cause serious physical and emotional distress and that every student has a responsibility to prevent such incidents.

The session encouraged students to respect one another, maintain healthy relationships between seniors and juniors, and report incidents of ragging to the appropriate authorities. The programme also highlighted the role of students and teachers in ensuring a peaceful, inclusive, and supportive learning environment.

The awareness talk was informative and meaningful, reinforcing the college's commitment to maintaining a ragging-free campus. The programme concluded with a message promoting respect, responsibility, and student safety.

Conclusion: The Anti-Ragging Awareness Talk helped strengthen students' awareness of the prevention of ragging and encouraged them to contribute towards a safe and friendly college atmosphere.
